Euro Attractions Show 2018 Set to Host Largest Exhibit Space in Event History

EAS 2018 to Take Place at RAI Amsterdam Convention Centre, Adds Additional Exhibit Hall to Accommodate Exhibitor Growth

Amsterdam, Netherlands (April 18, 2018) – More than 12,000 leisure and attractions industry professionals from more than 100 countries, including 500 manufacturer and supplier companies, will gather at Euro Attractions Show \(EAS\) 2018 to network, discover the latest trends, and explore innovative technologies. Taking place 25-27 Sept. at RAI Amsterdam Convention Centre in Amsterdam, Netherlands, EAS 2018 is set to be the largest show in event history, occupying 13,000+ net square meters of exhibition space with a fifth exhibit hall recently added due to continued exhibitor interest and growth.

EAS 2018 is the largest international conference and trade show for the leisure and attractions industry in the Europe, Middle East, Africa (EMEA) region. More than 8,000 influential buyers from amusement parks, attractions, water parks, family entertainment centers, zoos, aquariums, science centers, and resorts from around the world are expected to attend this year's event.

Ranging from high-tech equipment and digital solutions to decorations and playgrounds, the product and service offerings on the EAS 2018 show floor are dynamic and diverse. Participants will also discover the latest industry trends such as innovative food and beverage concepts and sustainability solutions. With Amsterdam serving as host to this year's EAS, specific elements that characterize the Dutch leisure landscape will also be increasingly present including theatrical equipment, holiday park, camping facilities, and more.
