

Alan Mahoney has extensive Asian waterpark experience with over 32 years of experience in waterpark design, development, and operations, with the past 22 years working and living within Asia.

Alan began his career with the Warner Village Theme Park Group as a core member of the group's operations team before bringing his experience and expertise to Asia. He initially worked on some of Asia's initial waterparks during the mid-1990's. During the 2000s, Alan was strongly involved with the fast progression of the growth of the waterpark industry in Asia, taking on General Management roles during the Sunway Lagoon, Malaysia redevelopment, as well as the development and operations of Chimelong Water Park, Guangzhou, China and Beijing Watercube Waterpark, Beijing, China, the home of the 2008 Summer Olympics.

Alan then focused his efforts on Southeast Asia again with the development of Ramayana Water Park, Thailand. He also represented Turner Broadcasting Inc. on Asia's first IP Waterpark, Cartoon Network Amazon for their successful opening operations in Thailand.

Alan returned to China and in 2016 became the Director of Operations for Pinnacle International Enterprise Limited and is currently the Vice President Aquaventure Waterpark for the newly opened Atlantis Sanya.

Alan is highly respected within the waterpark industry, especially for his understanding, knowledge of and experience within the Asian and particularly the Chinese market. His past projects have been internationally recognized, receiving high-profile awards from both IAAPA and the WWA. Alan was previously a board member of the WWA and currently sits on the IAAPA Asian M&S subcommittee.
