

Zoos and Aquariums: Show Me the Money!

Jeremy Goldblatt
IAAPA Zoo and Aquarium Track
November 16, 2009

Internal Marketing: Leveraging Attendance for Increased Revenue

- External marketing drives attendance and admissions
- Multiple revenue opportunities once guests are “in the gate”
- Internal Marketing is the coordination and promotion of ancillary services

Leverage

Ancillary Revenues

- Primary Revenues: Admissions
- Ancillary Revenues:

Food

Retail

Parking

Rides/Ticketed Shows

Photo

Animal Encounters

Stroller Rental

Tours

Penny smashers

Face painting

Vending

ATM

Tattoo

To Outsource or Not to Outsource?

- Cost/Capital to implement
- Opportunity Cost
- Liability & Flexibility
- Expertise/Core Competencies

Deal Structure & Implementation

-
- Types
    - Cost Plus (Profit Share)
    - Gross Percentage (Rental Fee)
    - Flat Fee
  - Ask For:
    - Low risk tests
    - Guaranteed Per Cap or revenue floor
    - Tiered structure
  - Focus on: Flexibility, Fit & Financial Health
  - Don't Focus on: Per Caps & Pro Formas

Case Study: Shedd's Internal Marketing Team

Team:

- Retail – Event Network
- Food & Catering – Sodexo
- Photo – Sharpshooter Imaging
- Marketing/Guest Services – Internal
- Membership – Internal
- Promotions – Internal
- Education – Internal

Internal Marketing Team Cont.

- Bi-weekly meeting
- Shared financial results, forecasting and budgeting
- Best practices
- Cross-selling opportunities
- Internal & External Events
- New initiatives

Results

- New Services/Partners:
  - Valet
  - Front Entry Photo
- New Internal Initiatives
  - Behind-the-Scenes Tours
  - Packaged Programs
  - Animal Encounters
- New Projects
- Pre Cap & Budgeted Revenues

Follow Up

Jeremy Goldblatt

312-692-3368

jgoldblatt@sheddaquarium.org