IAAPA MISSION STATEMENT

“Our mission is to serve the membership by promoting safe operations, global development, professional growth, and commercial success of the amusement parks and attractions industry.”

IAAPA MEMBERSHIP TERMS

- Dues: IAAPA membership is for a calendar year, January-December. Dues are not prorated. New memberships received after September 15 will be valid until December 31 of the following year.
- Renewal: Invoices for membership dues renewal are sent to all members in mid-October for the next calendar year. Dues invoices are payable January 1. A membership certificate and card are sent after full payment is received.
- Suspension: Members who dues are not paid after 90 days will be considered past due and all services will be suspended. Membership privileges will be reinstated at any time during the remaining months of the year after the full payment is received. Past due invoices for services rendered will also be cause for suspension, even if membership dues have been paid in full. This includes past due advertising and exhibitor fees. Membership will be reinstated after full payment of outstanding invoice(s).
- Termination: Members who have not paid their membership dues are terminated on December 31. When a member is terminated, membership continuity and seniority are surrendered. Membership privileges are not reinstated, but terminated members can apply for a new membership.
- $45 USD of membership dues are applied to a subscription for FUNWORLD magazine and cannot be deducted from the membership fee.
- IAAPA membership dues are considered a business expense and may be tax deductible for members residing in the United States. IAAPA does in lobbying efforts and therefore, under federal law 41% of a membership dues payment is nondeductible; 59% is deductible as a business expense.

IAAPA MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

IAAPA requires its members to observe a Code of Conduct outlining responsibilities:

1. To maintain safety as the highest priority in their businesses and to comply with all applicable standards, laws, and regulations.
2. To provide clean, wholesome, and safe entertainment for their guests, maintaining the highest standards in quality and service.
3. To conduct their businesses on the highest plane of integrity, honesty, and social responsibility.
4. To foster and maintain a spirit of cooperation and fair dealing for buyers and sellers, maintaining the principles of confidentiality, intellectual property protection, and agreed contractual terms.
5. To establish and maintain cordial and respectful relations with their fellow members worldwide.

We believe that these principles must be carried out by each member individually in order to foster and promote our industry and to protect its excellent reputation of delivering safe family fun.
